

■ HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This document is meant to help you plan financially for studying abroad. Study abroad is an investment in yourself - you'll return home with new experiences, skills, knowledge, and friendships that will stay with you for the rest of your life. As with any investment, there are costs involved, which are best managed through proper planning and awareness. We hope this financial planner will help you prepare for your study abroad experience and get as much out of it as possible.

Start with the list below - this is an overview of what's included in the standard program cost. Next, refer to the chart further down this page for a breakdown of basic expenses like tuition, room and board, as well as some additional estimated expenses that are either required or likely to be incurred. Head to the second page of the guide for more detailed tips and information on managing your finances while in the field, and our billing policy. Finally, the third page includes information on financial aid and scholarships.

■ FINANCES IN THE FIELD

LOCAL CURRENCY: Riel (KHR) or US Dollar (USD)

PREFERRED MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE: Cambodia is primarily a cash-based economy. Do not plan to use a card for most expenses. We recommend bringing cash in small denominations (no larger than $20 bills, preferably, with many $5 and $1 bills). Any cash that you bring must be in excellent condition, meaning clean, unwrinkled, unmarked, and with no tears or else they will not be accepted in the country or by local SFS staff.

UPON ARRIVAL: It is recommended to bring a supply of cash in USD to start the program (at least $300). As USD is accepted in Cambodia, we do not recommend that you exchange US dollars into Riel before arriving in Cambodia.

ATM ACCESS: There are ATMs that accept international cards in Siem Reap. Most ATMs in Cambodia dispense US dollars, so we recommend that you bring a debit card to replenish your cash, if necessary.

You will not have access to ATMs in most rural areas in Cambodia, so make sure to plan ahead for extended excursions away from the SFS Center.

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC TIPS/REMINDERS: The cost of goods and services in Cambodia is less expensive than in most U.S. cities. Most meals in town cost between $5-$10 maximum, and a tuk-tuk ride from the SFS Center to downtown Siem Reap costs about $3. Semester students should keep in mind that you will be responsible for your meals and lodging during the weekends away.

CREDIT CARD REQUIRED: All students are required to bring a credit card with a limit of at least $3,000 in case of emergencies. MasterCard and Visa are the most commonly accepted cards internationally.

TALK TO YOUR BANK:

- Be sure to notify your bank(s) and credit card companies that you will be travelling internationally. Be specific and include all locations where you will travel, including layovers!
- Ask your bank about whether or not they will charge you international fees when using your debit/credit card. If they do, you might consider using a bank that does not, if you plan to use your card often throughout the program.

SAFE: We have a small safe on-site, only accessible by SFS staff, where student valuables (passports, cash) can be secured.

TRAVEL SPENDING TIPS:

- Given the unreliability of ATMs, it is recommended to use a credit or debit card for higher-priced items (such as souvenirs) whenever possible so that your cash lasts longer.
- Plan to carry a mix of denominations, smaller denominations are often most widely accepted.
- Travel with cash in excellent condition, meaning clean, unwrinkled, unmarked, and with no tears.
- Personal checks are not accepted internationally.
- Since you will not have consistent access to an ATM, it is recommended to withdraw larger sums at a time so that you can have a supply on hand for a few weeks at a time.

■ BILLING INFORMATION AND DEADLINES

See the table on the right for tuition and room & board payment deadlines. Please note that these are not application deadlines and we will work with students on an individual basis if they apply to a session after these dates have passed.

Not all students pay SFS directly. Your home school may be responsible for making the payments; if this is the case we will send the invoice directly to your home school.

PROGRAM	DEADLINE
Summer I / Combined	April 1
Summer II	April 30
Fall Semester	June 1
Spring Semester	October 30

■ FINANCIAL AID AND EXTERNAL SCHOLARSHIPS

SFS awards a generous amount of need-based financial aid each year, in the form of scholarships, grants, and zero- and low-interest loans. All students are welcome to apply for SFS financial aid, and students who submit an SFS Financial Aid Application will be considered for our full range of aid options.

Financial aid applications are reviewed on a rolling basis after a student has been accepted to an SFS program. Early submissions are encouraged

External scholarships, such as the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship and the Fund for Education Abroad, are awarded independently of SFS aid packages and can be a good way to help fund your study abroad experience.
